

OPI Indian Education Lesson Evaluation: Classroom Application and Learning Objectives

Name of Reviewer	Title of lesson	Author of Lesson

1. All essential lesson components are identified:
content area, grade level, unit summary, time requirements, state standards, Essential Understandings, student learning targets, complete resource citations.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

2. The learning activities effectively address Montana Content Standards.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

3. The lesson integrates Essential Understandings Regarding Montana Indians.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

4. Learning activities are aligned with stated objectives.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

5. Assessment measures learning goals and stated objectives.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

6. Any teacher in Montana would be able to use this lesson, regardless of location.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

7. Sufficient background information and complete resource list included.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

8. Copyright laws are observed when using, recommending or citing sources.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

9. Lesson includes tribal specificity and culturally appropriate language.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

10. Resources have been evaluated for authenticity and appropriateness.

disagree 1 2 3 4 agree

(For more resource guidance, visit <http://www.opi.mt.gov/> "Indian Education" to see Evaluating American Indian Materials & Resources for the Classroom - textbooks, literature, DVDs, videos and websites and Indian Ed Literature and Resource Guidance)

OPI Indian Education Lesson Evaluation: Classroom Application and Learning Objectives

Lesson Strengths:

Recommended Changes

	Change recommended in this area:	Describe recommendation. Note whether this change is Optional or Required for acceptance.	O/R
1	Essential lesson components
2	Montana Content Standards
3	Essential Understandings
4	Learning activities aligned with objectives
5	Assessment measures learning goals/objectives
6	Usable regardless of teacher's location
7	Background information, complete resource list
8	Copyright observed for all sources
9	Tribally specific/Montana tribes and culturally appropriate language
10	Authenticity and appropriateness

Other Comments:

I would recommend this curriculum.

